

Dear Friend of ArtsWok Collaborative,

It has been four years since we started on this adventure. Thank you for being a part of our growth - witnessing, participating, contributing to our mission of nurturing thriving, creative and connected communities.

At the heart of what we do is the alleviation of the poverty of relationships. As our society grows more complex and diverse, we need resilient communities able to engage across difference. The arts provides that transformative space, offering a platform for people to tap into their creativity and draw upon their imagination to understand present challenges, relate to one another and emerge new possibilities.

To that end, we work with multidisciplinary teams to design and implement community-based arts projects, facilitate learning and exchanges through a community of practice, build capacity of practitioners through an action learning-incubator programme as well as conduct research and advocacy in the field of arts-based community development.

We invite you to help us do more.

Moving forward, we want to evolve new approaches to creative placemaking, where arts and cultural activities transform spaces into vibrant places that people identify with and have ownership over as a community. Through our annual M1 Peer Pleasure Youth Theatre Festival, we want to develop a new generation of cultural and civic leaders who can think critically, improvise sensitively and work collaboratively. And as we continue to strengthen the capacity of artists and allies to integrate art making and community building in meaningful ways, we are committed to building a stronger team capable of delivering on these ambitious plans.

If you believe in what we do, consider donating to us. We are hoping to raise SGD$30,000 in this round. But no amount is too small. Your support will go a long way in contributing to arts for social change.

Simply click on <https://www.giving.sg/-artswok-collaborative-limited> to donate. You can also choose to fill up the attached donation form and mail it in together with your cheque.

If your donation exceeds SGD$3,000, we would like to invite you to share a special meal with the ArtsWok team, so that we can get to know you better. 😊
